9. Advertising

Advertising of all kinds is permitted within the digital platform rented by the exhibitor/sponsor for the partner company's/sponsor's own company and only for the products and/or services it manufactures or distributes, insofar as these have been registered and approved.

10. Liability

10.1 The exhibitor/sponsor shall irrevocably indemnify ZELLCHEMING Service GmbH against all third-party claims against ZELLCHEMING Service GmbH, insofar as they are based on the fact that the partner company's/sponsor's appearance, products, intellectual content, or advertising violate third-party rights (in particular copyrights, image and name rights, trademark rights, competition rights, personal rights) or other statutory provisions. The indemnification obligation also extends to any warning, court, and legal costs incurred.
